

Washington Arbitration Week 2023: November 27 to December 1, 2023

SPONSOR INVITATION

We are thrilled to be launching the Fourth Edition of Washington Arbitration Week (WAW) and we would like to invite you to sponsor WAW 2023. The main objectives of WAW, the benefits for sponsors, and the means to contribute to our common goals are set out below.

WAW 2023 will be held from November 27 to December 1, 2023, with various in-person and virtual panels, a keynote speaker, and a special speaker.¹

The Fourth Edition of WAW will cover developments of commercial and investor-State arbitration, and relevant topics of public international law.

Washington D.C. is the epicenter of investment arbitration, home to the headquarters of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), law firms specialized in investment arbitration, public international law and international commercial arbitration. International organizations, United States federal agencies specialized in investment arbitration, embassies, vibrant law schools, NGOs and think tanks prominently also sit in Washington D.C.

WAW was created to provide an organic D.C. forum in international arbitration for its legal community and the international and foreign community connected to it. In the first three editions since 2020, WAW achieved impressive numbers reaching on average 3,584 registrations and 1,691 participants. Those numbers reflect a vibrant international arbitration community placing WAW as the most attended arbitration week in the US, and one of the most attended arbitration forums in the world. Those figures, which we expect to grow this year, would have been impossible without WAW's Circle of Sponsors, Supporting Organizations, Firms, and Experts.

Now in 2023, the Fourth Edition of WAW will further advance the analysis and discussion of developments reflected in arbitral awards, treaties and international instruments at the forefront of international arbitration. WAW 2023 will be an unparalleled opportunity for your organization to gain visibility with a large number of international and regional actors (potential clients, industry experts, practitioners, counsel for investors, counsel for States, arbitrators, officials of international organizations and arbitration centers, and academics) whilst aiding in the promotion of Washington D.C. as a leading global seat for international arbitration.

We will be delighted to work hand in hand with you in WAW and are sure that all our attendees will benefit significantly from your participation.

¹ The in-person and/or virtual nature of the panels may vary depending on the circumstances of the place at which the panel is held.

Financial Sponsors

Funds received from our Sponsors will be destined to costs associated with WAW such as advertising, technical support, website development, and other costs that may arise in the in-person events.

In addition to the panels, the platform selected for the event will provide breakout rooms for networking sessions for the virtual participants. We will also have networking sessions for the in-person events, and sponsors will have the possibility to host and participate in the networking sessions.

Given our common interest, WAW strongly encourages sponsors to advertise WAW with their network of contacts and in professional and social media.

1. Advantages of Sponsor:

- Networking with the audience: Sponsors will benefit from the in-person networking sessions and the virtual breakout rooms. WAW 2023 will reach hundreds of attendees not only in Washington D.C., but across the world's arbitration community with an in-depth program including 20 panels/events approximately.

Notably, WAW will build upon the experiences of its three prior editions which, as noted above, had 3,584 registrations and 1,691 participants on average. WAW 2023 will also build upon its sister event the World Arbitration Update (WAU) forum, which reached 2,535 registrations and 800 participants on average since 2021.

WAW is a free of charge event for attendees. Due to any space restrictions of the various in-person venues, or the platform's capacity restrictions, enrollment in WAW 2023 may be limited.

- Profile Raising: As detailed below, depending on the tier of support, sponsors will have access to a wide range of benefits aimed at raising the visibility and profile of their organizations. Given the far reach of the event, opportunities in this field are ample.

The recording of the panels—together with an innovative and automated transcript generated by Voicica—will be available for consultation on WAW's website at www.washingtonarbitrationweek.com after the end of the event. This means that our sponsors and panelists will continue to have visibility after WAW 2023.

- Endorsing Arbitration in Washington D.C.: Washington D.C. is the epicenter of investment arbitration, the place of vibrant universities and law schools, and various international organizations. WAW 2023 will help to keep promoting Washington D.C. as a leading global seat for international arbitration.

2. Benefits of Sponsor:

 - Recognition of the company as a sponsor of a particular panel.
 - Priority logo placement across all content.
 - The possibility that the sponsor be listed in marketing campaigns and relevant emails.
 - Four special registrations for the in-person panels.

Our packages do not include speaking opportunities. Please inform us if you wish to propose a speaker candidate, if relevant to any of the panels.

3. How to be enrolled as a Financial Sponsor:

If interested, please send an email to mlcasas@xtrategycenter.com, amvives@xtrategycenter.com and WAW@xtrategycenter.com, fully identifying your Organization, the tier at which your organization would like to sponsor WAW and a contact point for further correspondence.

Once you send the email, the sponsorship committee will provide the wire transfer instructions, the W-9 form if needed, and will request a high-resolution logo, with confirmation of authorization to publish it on WAW's website.

Potential sponsors are asked to confirm their interest as soon as possible. If you have any additional question regarding sponsorship, you can send an email to mlcasas@xstrategycenter.com and WAW@xstrategycenter.com.
